Public Relations and Media Skills
Why Attend

Public Relations (PR) professionals should be prepared to use their skills to present a positive image of their company at all times. They must be prepared to respond quickly to any crisis that may arise. By putting the right effort into building a solid reputation during good times your business will be able to withstand the negative press if a crisis were to arise. Participants on this course will understand their role as PR professionals, acquire verbal and written communication techniques, and get the ability to evaluate crisis situations and deal with the media while promoting the reputation of the organization.

Course Methodology

The course is designed to be interactive and participatory, and includes various learning tools to enable the participants to function effectively and efficiently. The course is built on the following learning pillars: presentations and facilitation by the trainer, group exercises, roundtable discussions, video clips, case studies and debriefing.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Analyze and assess the latest PR concepts and strategies in a variety of contexts
- Appraise certain PR techniques and approaches appropriately in order to link them to the working environment
- Demonstrate key PR skills relating to verbal and written communication as well as editorial, layout and production techniques
- Apply the main media skills in PR
- Prepare, present and deliver effective oral messages in public
- Use their PR skills as promotional tools
